Portrait of My Mother Poet

Original title: Portrait de ma mère poète

An intimate portrait of Marie-Jo Gobron, a Belgian poet and the director's mother. Twenty years after the release of a film about his father's paintings, the filmmaker continues his exploration of his parents' artistic universe. Born in 1916 in Flanders near the French border, Marie-Jo writes mostly in French. Now, at the age of 85, she introduces an autobiographical novel about her youth and about her daring emancipation in both art and love.
