

4 x 7

Original title: 4 x 7

The first series of 4 x 7 aired from September 2016 on Canvas. Each episode contains four seven-minute documentaries preceded by a studio introduction by their filmmakers that can last between one and two minutes. In this introduction, he/she explains why they have chosen the subject and/or way of telling the story. These short documentaries have in common that they must be told by their maker and therefore are not guided by an editor. The subject must be one that is significant to the maker; it must intrigue, frustrate, fascinate, inspire him/her or bring them to tears. Each director can make one single documentary (one-off). It obviously means that diversity is key to the show. In total, during season 2, we have 56 documentaries (14 episodes of new documentaries and two episodes with the Canvas hosts' choice of reappearing stories).
