

A Chicken Is No Dog

Original title: Firmin

When the woman who broke his heart more than 25 years ago suddenly reappears, a former boxer seizes every chance to regain both his true love and sporting honour. Their passionate relationship came to an abrupt end when, during the 1979 Belgian Championship fight, his opponent claimed that he had made love to his girlfriend. That evening, our naïve boxer not only lost the championship but also the love of his life. Now that she's back, he's determined to regain her love and show the world that he's no loser.
