

Amy

Original title: Amy

Amy is a grief councilor, life coach, and self-proclaimed shaman—a woman who promises healing with conviction, but creates a universe in which she is the only law. When four participants sign up for her exclusive workshop, they find themselves in an increasingly claustrophobic game of rituals, psychological experiments, and grotesque assignments. Amy seduces, punishes, heals, and destroys — sometimes all at once. While her guests are searching for purpose in life, Amy leads them deeper and deeper into her own nightmare.
