Approximations/Contradictions

Original title: Approximations/Contradictions

In Approximations/Contradictions, director Ana Torfs elicits truly breathtaking performances from a diverse group of gifted people singing songs from Hanns Eisler's Hollywood Songbook, weaving them together into something entertaining, yet deeply disturbing and compelling. Torfs filmed 21 performers, creating close-up portraits of each singer performing three evocative versions (Approximations) of an Eisler song with the lyrics of Bertolt Brecht. Through his compositions for the Hollywood Songbook, Eisler was interested in translating his impressions of war, exile and Hollywood. Torfs researched Eisler's work extensively, formulating an idea of how he would have intended this material, both dark and witty (Contradictions), to be performed.
