

Bagage (A Spiritual Travel)

Original title: Bagage (A Spiritual Travel)

Unforgettable moment will be delivered by the documentary called BAGAGE. Franciscans wearing their brown habits skateboarding through the Bronx drug addicts starting a new life in the neighbourhood of Sao Paulo Flemish religious sisters in Mongolia the Don Bosco spirituality experienced in Cameroon these are just a few moments taken from the dozen documentaries that explore different dimensions of religious life across the globe. Traditional as well as new congregations from all over the world will be featured. The camera follows openly and without any judgement the main (religious) character. Through this person's quest for the personal meaning of life, he introduces his community and himself to the viewer. The basic question: What makes a contemporary person live in a religious community? Does belief have any specific goal in this high-tech postmodern society? How can a person live his own believe in an authentic way? BAGAGE is a TV-format and is copyrighted. All rights reserved by Sylvester Productions / KRO / KTRO.
