

Barber Aziz

Original title: Zonder Afspraak

Welcome to Hair Salon 'No Appointment Needed', a place too small for all the drama and the many dreams that take place there. It is overcrowded, with a Turkish family headed by Souad, the Algerian mother, a local gang of amateur blackmailers, neighbour Patrick in midlife crisis, a criminal brother-in-law who moves in, an adolescent daughter who wants to become a showbiz hairdresser, a half-paralysed father, and an 18-year-old year-old son with unexpected plans. It's the perfect setting for a comic drama full of misunderstandings, broken hearts, witty quarrels, and painfully recognisable confrontations, all at a furious pace, directed by Aziz, the hairdresser who just dreamed of being a musician.
