

Because Of The Cats

Original title: Niet voor de poezen

Near Amsterdam the Ravens, a gang of well-off 20-year-olds, are operating. Their ideas for a new and better society are based on the ideas of Marx, Lenin, Mao and Marcuse. They develop into a gang of thugs from which weak members are removed without compassion. These murders are carried out by a group of young girls, called the Cats. All goes well until the Ravens decide to steal and wreck cars. This leads to even harder investigations by the police. After another murder of one of their members, the police arrest the Ravens and crack down hard on each individual member which leads to confessions of one of them.
