

Belonging

Original title: Beraber

Fourteen-year-old free runner Zeki seems carefree, but in reality he struggles with the recent loss of his mother. When his father wants to exchange Rotterdam for Istanbul, Zeki's life is once again turned upside down. The new house in Istanbul is fully equipped, but it is located in a compound, and the porter has been instructed not to let the children who live there go outside unsupervised. It's far too dangerous. Then Zeki finds a way over the wall, and Istanbul opens up before him. While free running, he discovers the city, and befriends Kemal, a boy from a poor neighbourhood. Will it be a fun summer after all?
