

Black

Original title: Zwart

Black is a film about all the relevant connotations related to the word, both positive and negative. 'Black' is a tree with disciplines such as religion, psychology, politics and culture as branches; topics like Black Death, Black Sheep and Black Magic as leaves. Black explores the past, present and future of the word - the cause and effect - and why it has such overwhelmingly negative connotations around the world. It shows how the word is interpreted in a similar way in Asia, Europe, America and even Africa.
