

Bruxelles mon amour

Original title: Bruxelles mon amour

Three Brussels' stories set in an old neighbourhood that's being sacrificed to the ever expanding infrastructure of the European institutions. Ex-lovers Hannah and Jens see each other again and secretly wonder if the ashes of love are still smouldering. Louise discovers that the neighbourhood priest, just like she did, had a special relationship with her deceased Irish tenant. Cheb, a young Moroccan guy, lives in a squatted building. When he hears about the death of his mother, he begins to wonder: should he stay or leave?
