

Building a Legend

Original title: Building a Legend

The dreams of three men are connected by a legendary piano: the Steinweg 1836, the first Steinway Grand piano and the starting point for the most prominent piano-building dynasty in the world. The original piano has since long lost its sound. Today, each of these men is in search of the piano's original sound for their own specific reasons. When one of them takes on the challenge of building a replica of this first Steinway Grand piano, the puzzle starts to fit together for all of them.
