

Bullied for Life?

Original title: Voorgoed verpest?

Kristiaan Grauwels has worked for many years as a cameraman and editor on reports and documentaries for VRT. He feels most comfortable behind the scenes. But now, for the first time, the spotlight is on him. In the early 1990s, Kristiaan became a victim of bullying at a boarding school, but he no longer remembers the details. Together with director Luc Lemaître, he wants to discover the profound impact this has had on his life.

Kristiaan talks to fellow sufferers and experts in the hope of understanding what happened and why. Are Kristiaan's wounds still healable after thirty years, or is he permanently scarred?
