

Cheers & Cheerio

Original title: Bedankt & merci

Cheers & Cheerio is a documentary about five old local pubs in the Belgian region of Flanders Fields. These local pubs once attracted whole communities, but time consumed their clientele one by one, and is about to do the same with their owners: Gisèle, Alice, Julien and Lies. The youngest is 75, the eldest 89. Each morning, day in day out, they wait impatiently for their first customer. All except Lucienne: her heart faltered, so the pub closed down.
