

Clenched Fist

Original title: Les poings serrés

Eleven-year-old Lucien lives a secluded life with his mother Cécile and his older brother in a village in the Ardennes. He is a secretive boy who avoids contact with others and the questions they ask. When his grandmother dies, his father is let out of prison to attend the funeral. It hurts Lucien to see his father grieve, handcuffed and protected from the angry community by the police. Against the advice of his family, and at the risk of losing everything, Lucien decides to see his father again.
