

Cordon II

Original title: Cordon II

Jana has been reunited with her friend, Commissioner Lex, who is now with her inside the cordon. Together, they must take care of Quinten, whose mother died in the quarantine zone. Officer Jokke is infected with the deadly virus, as is Dr. Cannaerts. The doctor makes a hasty decision to test experimental antiviral drugs on himself and Jokke. Outside the cordon, senior civil servant Sabine Lommers tries to launch a cover-up operation as to the real origin of the virus. Then comes the salvational but also dangerous news that for some there may be light at the end of the tunnel: the setting up of a transit zone, an intermediate station between the cordon and the outside world. But who will and who will not be allowed in? Is everything really fair? Will life ever get back to normal?
