

CORPUS a quest for eternity

Original title: CORPUS a quest for eternity

In Corpus, a quest for eternity, master anatomist Andreas Vesalius invites you to join him on an unusual quest. Five hundred years after his death, he wants to show you how art and science can combine to produce a profound insight into existence. On this journey, you will meet five contemporary artists with a groundbreaking vision of anatomy and the human body: Babette Van Rafelghem, Gunther von Hagens, Stelarc, Colin H Van Eeckhout and Eva Gerd. Through their eyes you will rediscover the body as a new and wonderful world, and ponder the meaning of existence and creation itself.
