

Das Retirée

Original title: Das Retirée

A daughter asks her architect father: “Now you are nearing the end of your life, what would your dream house look like? This question, from the filmmaker to her father, retired architect Karlhans Pfeleiderer, is the starting point of Das Retirée. Slowly but surely, the house takes form, first drawn on shifting layers of transparent paper, then glued together as a scale model. Between the words and the gestures, the daughter's film becomes the father's last house, a space in which unspoken words, unfulfilled desires can appear, disclosing coping-mechanisms that have survived for several generations.
