

Deuteronomy

Original title: Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy is the fifth chapter of The Godlove Museum, a project that started in 1999. Every chapter is loosely based on a book in the Bible of the same name. But we use the mythology of the bible to tell quite a different dramatic story. The Godlove Museum trades God for an ideal of love and puts us, the authors, in the position of characters attempting to reach a promised land inside that love. And inside the romanticism of the Internet. Occasionally the real world seeps through and political and social commentary is fused with the personal and romantic elements. Deuteronomy will be, like Genesis, Exodus, Levitus and Numbers, a web-browser based multimedia project.
