

Doopie

Original title: Dropje

Doopie, a soft toy especially designed for this series, isn't a human or an animal, a boy or a girl. Doopie is Doopie. Doopie lives in the knick-knack shop. Every day, Doopie goes out into the world, full of enthusiasm, and comes home safely every evening. In-between, Doopie meets a different child, and together they have all kinds of adventures. Thanks to Doopie's adventurous and inquisitive nature, they land in many bizarre situations, which Doopie 'solves' in a unique, completely illogical, but humorous way.
