

Gislain Libart, the Lumberman

Original title: Gislain Libart, boomhakker

Gislain Libart is a modest woodcutter from the Ardennes region who became a world player in international wood trading. In a tale of economic globalisation, European-cut trees are transported to Egypt to make 'neo-antique' furniture for the Chinese market.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Manu Riche

PRODUCER: Eric Goossens, Manu Riche

WRITER: Manu Riche

CAST: Gislain Libart

EDITING: Matyas Veress

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Majority Flemish Production

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2009

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: Gislain Libart, boomhakker

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: French, English

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 55'

CONTACT & SALES

CONTACT

Off World

T +32 2 412 4040

frederik@offworld.be

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com