

Golden City

Original title:

In the middle of the Indian Thar-desert, near the Pakistan borders, lies the magnificent city of Jaisalmer. Thousand and thousands of tourists pass by here every year. All of them are looking for the mythical India of their expectations, hoping to actively experience cultural authenticity. Do they find what they are looking for? And travelling in India today, is it still adventurous? What happens when two completely different cultures have to interact with each other? A documentary film about deceit and (wanting to) be deceived.
