

Happy End

Original title: Happy End

Happy End (Le petit poucet) is the fruit of a triple meeting between the French composer and stage director Georges Aperghis, the Belgian video-artist Hans Op de Beeck and Le Petit Poucet (Tom Thumb), the children's tale written by Charles Perrault in 1697. Receiving its premiere on the stage of the Lille Opera, this musical and video creation, which is not a show for children, is performed live by 16 musicians from the ensemble Ictus.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Bruno Hardt, Hans Op de Beeck, Klaas Verpoest

PRODUCER: Stijn Maes

WRITER: Bruno Hardt, Hans Op de Beeck, Klaas Verpoest

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 60'

CONTACT & SALES

CONTACT

Studio Hans Op de Beeck
T +32 (0)2 527 87 18 info@hansopdebeeck.com

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Majority Flemish Production

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2007

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: Happy End