

Iceberg

Original title: L'iceberg

Fiona is the manager of a fast food restaurant. One night she accidentally gets locked in the cold store. After a long and freezing night she finally gets out only to realise that her husband and children didn't even notice she was missing. Little by little, in the after-shock of this traumatic event, Fiona develops an obsession for all things cold and icy: snow, polar bears, fridges... and decides to go on a quest to find a real iceberg. A poetic and funny movie about the clumsiness of modern day lost souls running after the illusions of another life.
