

leperlaan

Original title: leperlaan

The Boulevard d'Ypres in Brussels with its large and colourful Mediterranean stores, offers glimpses of the Arabian Nights - but urban development is now driving out these shops. Director Sarah Vanagt turned one of the already empty stores into a film studio and invited her neighbours - a mix of new inhabitants, undocumented immigrants, asylum-seekers and shopkeepers - to come and tell a story; a fairytale. The shop, the street and the storytellers all find themselves at a point zero of history.
