

In the Arms of Morpheus

Original title: In de armen van Morpheus

It's impossible not to surrender to sleep. The controllable world we are familiar with will sooner or later pass into the intangible and fleeting domain of sleep, in which we are subjected to a fundamentally different way of experiencing things. Things that can't be logically explained. Do we look for the opportunities we allow to slip by during the day, or do we get a glimpse of a greater universe?
