

Kamay

Original title: Kamay

Freshta and her family are Hazaras, a people from central Afghanistan who have suffered centuries of state persecution and genocide. Freshta's elder sister, Zahra, committed suicide a few weeks before her graduation from Kabul University, after her thesis research on the local plant Kamay was rejected several times by her professor. We follow the family's struggle for justice, guided by questions the grieving Freshta asks herself about her sister.
