

Kassablanka

Original title: Kassablanka

Seventeen-year-old Leilah, a smart girl from a conservative Muslim family falls in love with her nineteen-year-old neighbour Berwout, son of a neo-fascist Flemish nationalist. The often hilarious and politically incorrect story is set in Kassablanka, a popular multi-ethnic district in Antwerp, during the week prior to Black Sunday, October 8, 2002 - when one third of the Antwerp electorate voted for the extreme right-wing Flemish Bloc.
