Original title:

Who is telling the truth and who is a born liar ? In this light-hearted game show, the candidates have to distinguish the lie from the truth. And the best judge of character can win a lot of money. Liar Liar is played in three rounds. Four well-known personalities tell us each a funny, weird or extraordinary story. Then it is up to our three candidates to decide whether these stories are true or false. A correct answer wins them points or money. The amount of points or money is determined by the Point-o-meter.
