

Lone Twin

Original title: Pas de Deux

Lone Twin is a documentary film told through the perspective of the filmmaker who lost her twin brother in a tragic accident at the age of 20. In her quest to understand the impact of being a lone twin for most of her life, she revisits key relationships and ex-lovers. She also encounters other twins, the youngest 20, the oldest 80. What do twins share that others don't? Her travels take her from Canada to the US; from Europe to Nigeria. Both storylines are interwoven with her personal investigation into the essential role twins play in mythology, history and psychology. Even the experts in the film are themselves twins.
