

Lost Luggage

Original title: Lost Luggage

Ten days after the terrorist attacks on Brussels Airport, Samira Laroussa, a half-Moroccan policewoman with a big heart, is given the task of returning baggage and personal belongings left behind in the departure hall that day. Each new encounter with a victim or relative will unbalance the seemingly strong Samira, who is far from ready to deal with her own trauma and the pain of her troubled past. In her blind determination to help everyone, Samira forgets to take care of herself.
