

Mixed Kebab

Original title: Mixed Kebab

Flemish-born Turk Ibrahim (aka 'Bram') is 27 and really should be getting married according to his traditional parents. What they don't realise is that he is much more interested in getting close to blonde Kevin, who works at the local chip shop. Finally, they lay down the law: Bram must travel to Turkey and meet his 18-year-old cousin Elif to whom he is betrothed. Although he bows to their wishes, he cannot resist taking Kevin with him. In the meantime, rumours swirl around their multicultural Antwerp neighbourhood about Bram's 'inclinations.' Complicating the situation further is Bram's streetwise brother Furkan, who joins a group of Islamic fundamentalists, finds out about Bram's relationship with Kevin and plots to expose them - or possibly do worse...
