

My Paper Life

Original title: My Paper Life

Vida Dena's feature documentary debut is an intimate and subtly expansive portrait of a Syrian family living in a house in Brussels, and who seldom leave the confines of its four pink walls. My Paper Life focuses on the two eldest daughters, Hala and Rima, and the family's growing collection of drawings and dreams. As their colourful sketches come alive, the young women recall their journey and their home, their plans to study and to marry, and the other possibilities they hope this new life might have in store.
