

Nollywood Abroad

Original title: Nollywood aan de Schelde

John is a Nigerian immigrant living in Antwerp. Like most of his compatriotes, he is a great fan of Nollywood movies, the third largest film industry in the world. John dreams of a career as a famous and respected Nollywood filmmaker and of building a life in Europe. But then he is arrested and convicted of inciting prostitution and of complicity in trafficking. After serving his sentence, he decides to make his story into a film. The manner in which he presents his tale ultimately reveals what led to his conviction. But is John really guilty? And will making this film help him to regain the respect he craves?
