

One Night...A Train

Original title: Un soir... un train

40-year-old Mathias lives together with his girlfriend, Anne in a small town in Flanders. One day, Anne confronts him with the fact that she's unhappy and feels suppressed. Mathias is forced to face reality. Anne forces him to think about their lives together. Falling asleep on the train they were sitting on, he realizes in his dream that his life would mean nothing with Anne in it. But when he wakes up, he discovers that the train they were sitting on was involved in a crash. Amidst the wreckage of their carriage, he discovers Anne's body. Based on the work of Johan Daisne
