

Restless Stones

Original title: Restless Stones

Restless Stones* reflects on the PKK's recent decision to lay down arms, a choice shaped by the echoes of a long-standing conflict. In October 2015, while preparing a film in Bakur, the Kurdish region of Turkey, the filmmaker witnessed urban warfare unfold: guerrilla fighters and insurgent youth declaring autonomy in key cities, met by the state's overwhelming military response, and a generation of young people drawn into the frontlines. Moving between past and present, the film revisits these pivotal moments and shows how the violence continues to reverberate in the political landscape and in the lives of people today.
