

S.

Original title: S.

S. and her boyfriend, both Europeans, live in New York. Her boyfriend doesn't give a damn about her. When he makes love to his ex-lover in front of her, S. kills them both. She flees to Europe, where she works in a peepshow and becomes Marie's lover. She wants to find her roots, but visits to her mother and her grandmother don't reveal the truth. She tries to find a reason for living, but even a priest she meets has no real answers. The priest stalks her. S. seduces and kills him. She flees back to New York, to her ex-lover Angie, whom she finds together with... Marie. On a videotape, her father reveals the truth : he violated her. S. considers suicide, but then she decides against it : Marie and S. will live together.
