

So You Wanna Be II

Original title: Later als ik groot ben

In the series So You Wanna Be II, we introduce children to less common professions. Each episode tells the story of a man or woman who has dared to make their own dream come true. They are the emblematic 'heroes' in our series that give different kinds of professions and businesses a human face and tell a story that will also fascinate the smallest among us. In this second season we again see a lot of interesting professions, like an ecological fish farmer, a cancer researcher and a glass artist. The 3D-character Pieper guides the children through the episodes in a playful way.
