

So You Wanna Be S02

Original title: Later als ik groot ben S02

Each episode of So You Wanna Be tells the story of a man or woman who has dared to make their own dream come true. They are the emblematic heroes in our series, giving different kinds of professions and businesses a human face, and telling a story that will also fascinate the smallest among us. In this second season, we again see a lot of interesting professions, such as an ecological fish farmer, a cancer researcher, and a glass artist. The 3D-character Pieper guides the children through the episodes in a playful way.
