

Splinter

Original title: Splinter

When promising athlete Splinter hears the diagnosis that she will never run again after suffering a crippling fall on the track, she decides to leave her father/coach and trade the village in which she was born for the city. Here she searches for independence and a new goal in life. Meeting her eccentric housemate Bill sets off an intense quest for direction, a future, sexuality, friendship and enough love for herself that she can let go and love someone else.
