

Still From Afar

Original title: Van ver staat het stil

In Still From Afar, Eva van Tongeren translates a months-long correspondence between the convicted paedophile Thomas and herself into an audiovisual monologue. The correspondence forces them to adjust their thoughts to the rhythm of each other's letters. His imagination takes her to deserts where westerns are filmed, along the largest trees in the world, to the busy streets of Los Angeles. She sends him fragments of memories that will never be his.
