

Tales of a Liar

Original title: Terug naar Oosterdonk

At the funeral repast of his father Louis, Brecht Bosmans is confronted with his own past: his youth in Oosterdonk, a village that no longer exists. Among the people and things Brecht recalls are his first love, Elza, and the man who taught him all he knows now, the village philosopher Pete the liar. Brecht also wonders why, just before he died, as his last wish, his father invited Jos Teugels to his funeral. It turns out, however, that Jos Teugels is impossible to track down ...
