

The Alzheimer Case

Original title: De Zaak Alzheimer

The number-one box office hit in Flanders in 2003. When a key civil servant is murdered, the Antwerp police force puts its top crime investigators on the case: Vincke and Verstruyft . The trail leads to hitman Angelo Ledda. Showing symptoms of Alzheimer's disease, Ledda finds it increasingly difficult to carry out assignments. When he discovers that he is being used in a political power game, he decides to bite the hand that feeds. Vincke and Verstruyft have a hard time trying to disentangle the web of intrigues, settlements and networks, in order to prevent further killings.
