

The Colour of Our Time

Original title: The Colour of Our Time

The Colour of Our Time traces the friendship, pain, and memory of three Iraqi artists shaped by war, forced migration, and arrival in Europe. Told in four parts, one for each protagonist plus a final chapter dedicated to the archive, it reveals the multi-layered process of its making. Capturing the quiet poetry of their journey across a period of 20 years, it is a testament to the power of art in the face of rupture and exile.
