

The Diner

Original title: Le repas

A young mixed-race couple (Malik has Moroccan origins and Silke is Belgian) argue about how they're going to receive his parents who eventually got their travel visa. Silke has the morning off and offers to take care of everything. She searches on the internet as to how she can prepare a traditional Moroccan recipe. But Malik is delayed on his way home and when Silke opens the door to her future parents-in-law, there are not just the two of them standing in front of her...
