

The Future Of '36

Original title: De toekomst van '36

Documentary exploring the obscure role of anarcho-syndicalism during the Spanish Civil War. Travelling through Spain, a young Belgian woman in search of her past, her future, through a part of Spanish history, through the social revolution of anarcho-syndicalists at the outset of the Civil War in Catalonia, 1936. A recent past - the great strike in the winter of 1960 in Belgium, May 1968, the feminist movement - her past, her parents' past, reflected and compared to the far future that she has found in Catalonia in 1936.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Linda Van Tulden, Willem Thijssen

PRODUCER: Linda Van Tulden, Willem Thijssen

CAST: Linda Van Tulden, Ramon Texidor

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 100'

ASPECT RATIO: 1.33:1 (4:3)

RELEASE FORMAT: 35mm

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com

CONTACT & SALES

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Majority Flemish Production

GENRE: Documentary

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 1983

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: De toekomst van '36

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: Dutch, Spanish