

THE MOVEMENT OF PHILL NIBLOCK

Original title: The Movement of Phill Niblock

A portrait of drone composer, structural filmmaker and New York 1960s-icon/curator Phill Niblock. Niblock was one of the personal photographers of Charles Mingus and Duke Ellington, worked in the Judson Dance Theatre and shot films for Yvonne Rainer. On his 60th birthday, Sonic Youth did a performance in his loft. By following Phill Niblock, this documentary aims to provide a portrait of the crumbling counterculture.
