

The New Saint

Original title: The New Saint

The deeply religious Yevgeny Rodionov was killed in Chechnya by terrorists after refusing to convert to Islam, paying for his loyalty with decapitation. He was proclaimed a martyr and many Russians regarded him as their unofficial saint. Yevgeny's mother is determined to keep his iconic memory alive and uses all her energy to campaign for his canonisation. Along the way, she finds herself supported by orthodox priests, Hells Angels and the Russian Army, who see in Yevgeny's story a primary example of patriotism to display to young soldiers.
