

The Phoenix

Original title: De feniks

Geert, a lonely young man, steals a manuscript from a writer who has just been killed in an accident. At home Geert receives the second part of the manuscript through his fax machine. He decides to send the manuscript, in his name, to a publisher. The book is a big success and Geert enjoys being famous. One year later, the demand for a second book starts growing and Geert decides to connect his fax machine again...
