

The Pink Revolution

Original title: The Pink Revolution

Hocine was born a boy and raised in a conservative family in Algeria. Today her name is Yasmine. Adil and Albéric were born in countries where homosexuality is punishable by prison, persecution, and death. They fled to Belgium and France, seeking asylum. Thomas' Spanish father dreamt of seeing his son married in a church. Ariane, a young feminist queer, refuses to submit to men's diktats. They all share the same ambition: to no longer be invisible. Together, they try to overcome their fears and conquer situations in which they usually feel unwelcome.

CREDITS

DIRECTOR: Jawad Rhalib

PRODUCER: Ellen De Waele

WRITER: Jawad Rhalib

EDITING: Jawad Rhalib, Jawad Rhalib

TECHNICAL SPECS

RUNNING TIME: 98'

RELEASE FORMAT: Apple ProRes 422;
DCP (2K)

COLOUR: Colour

CREATION DETAILS

TYPE: Film

PRODUCTION SHARE: Minority Flemish
co-production

GENRE: Documentary

YEAR OF PRODUCTION: 2020

PRODUCTION STATUS: Completed

ORIGINAL TITLE: The Pink Revolution

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE: French

CONTACT & SALES

CONTACT

Serendipity Films

info@serendipityfilms.be

MORE INFO

flandersimage.com

flanders*i*

